

SAINT VALENTINE

FEAST DAY:
February 14th

St. Valentine is the Patron Saint of Love, Young People and Happy Marriages

St. Valentine shared his love of God with others.

He died a martyr in around the year 269 because he refused to renounce his Christian faith.

Legend's tell us stories about St. Valentine - curing a blind girl and sharing a note signed "Your Valentine" with her before he was executed. Many other stories about St.
Valentine helping young couples get married.
